your Neighbour

Connecting with your neighbour

Starts with being sold out to God

Luke 10:2

“Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind”; and, ‘Love your neighbour as yourself.’”

Sub Heading

Luke 10:2

But he wanted to justify himself, so he asked Jesus, “And who is my neighbour?”

A background image showing a variety of colorful chess pawns (red, blue, yellow, green, purple) on a light-colored chessboard. The pawns are scattered across the board, with some in sharp focus and others blurred in the background.

So who is your neighbour ?

Two Big Questions :

What does it look like to love someone ?

Is anyone off limits ?

Connecting with your neighbour ?

“Let my heart be broken by the things that break the heart of God”

Bob Pierce

Connecting with your neighbour ?

We have a God who delights in turning mourning into dancing, sorrow into joy, suffering into triumph, darkness into light and ultimately death into life.

Connecting with your neighbour ?

“Go and do likewise”

Luke 10 : 37
